Important Decision

M. Ab. Plannip tr. The People.

This cause has been on trial for the last twenty years, "and has occupied the attention of almost everybody in this vicinity." The points are these, "the plaintiff, M. Ab. Plannip claims to be able to furnish to the whole commanity the best stock of men's and youthsclothing and furnishing goods to be found in the city, to give better fits, more tastey styles, and to sell at lower prices." His chains have been whightly contested by a few of the dealers in the same line, "but after platent and care ful cois adecration of the case, without prejudice or partiality, the decision has been reade," and like the laws of the Medes and Pershans cannot be changed, that he is clearly enabled to all that he claims; t. e. being the great clother of Madison.

The Passident in 1860.—The boy is now living who will be President of the United States in 1900. He is about ten or twelve years of age. His parents are in humble circumstances, but of sterling traits of character, cumstances, but of sterling traits of character, and their son is not one of those dirty, noisy boys that spend their days, evening, and Sabbaths in idleness and rowdyism. On the contrary he is of a serious cast, is very studious, an withal is well behaved. Teachers, weigh well your responsibility! The future President may be in that grammar class that you think scarcely worthy of a respectful attention. What boy of all our readers will lay claim to this distinction! Reccollect that the future President is not found among the Sabbath breakers, the everyday idlers, the evening rowdies, the blasphemous, the vulgar, or among those that love and make a lie, He is not one of those who pride themselves as being Young America, and despise the authority of a father, or break away from the gentle restraint of a good mother-PIRE'S PREE.—The St. Joseph (Mo. Genetic of Saturday test, mentioned the arrival in that city of Mr. Charles Hance, of that State, di-rect from the gold mines. He brings with him lance speaks very favorably of the mi districts, and capresses no doubt in regard to the mines being rich. He says he saw two gentlemen from New York pay $1,100 for a claim in Russel's Guich. He is of the opinion claim in Kussel's Guich. He is of the opinion that there is from $3,000,000 to $4,000,000 of dust now in Denver City and the mines, which will be brought to the States as soon as holders can effect sales on what they consider fair terms. Enthusiastic gold-hunters need no encouragement to believe the story of the returned miner; doubters had better 'wait for the facts—that is, the arrival of the four millions!

Laborers strike back when stricken. We know that working men are, sometimes, wrought up to an unhealthy excitement by intriguers—but, in most instances, undue demands are made of operatives. All inefficient men should not be paid full wagen, but skillful meshanics should have good pay and reasonable hours of service. This is not the land, nor the time of day, to grind the producer, the worker, between the milistones of capital. The coal men at Pittsburg have crawled out of their damp, dark mines and stand up erect like men, claiming payment of wages by weight of coal dug, instead of by measure. The machinists on the Michigan Southern railroad refused to serve, or allow service on any train other than the one Laborers strike back when stricken. We allow service on any train other than the one carrying the mail, until assurances were given that back pay would be secured. The three months' wages due are to be paid, and the cara are now running regularly. The strike in London has assumed immense proportions.

TPA Florida paper (St. Augustine Eraminer) of the 20th ultimo, makes the positive assertion that cargoes of Africans are constantly landed in the United States, in spite of the bue landed in the United States, in spite of the hue and cry at the North, and it is especially pleased at being able to produce an 'agreement,' entered into between a Rhode Island captain, one Miller Wickham, commanding the brig Favorite, and a firm doing business on the African coast under the name of Lewis & Boyd. This Rhode 'siand captain engaged to deliver a certain cargo of rum, tobacco, cordage, &c., to Lewis & Boyd, in exchange for which they promised to furnish him with 'eighty fair and merchantable negroes.' The Examiner asserts, in a tone of triumph, that 'these slaves were landed and no mistake'—italicising the latter chause of the sentence.

The 'Zouave jacket' is the most approved article of wearing apparel in gay Paris at this writing. It is made of all materials. A button or how of ribbon fastens the front at the throat. Under this garment, is visible a muslin chemisette, like those worn by little boys,' probably the rame thing that gave rise to the popular hallad about 'Dicky Dout.' The sleeve is cut square. For the autumn and winter Madame Petit sill form these jackets of embroidered silk and of velvet.
